

YOUNG LEADERS

Young leaders are anyone aged 14 to 18 volunteering with a younger section (Beavers, Cubs and Scouts). This could be used towards the volunteering part of Duke of Edinburgh or Welsh Baccalaureate or just because you have the time. If you want to find out more about volunteering or training get in touch. You can speak to a leader or email youngleaders@penarthanddistrict.org.uk

Training

There is a training scheme for young leaders which includes 10 modules (A to K). Module A must be completed by all young leaders the other 9 are open to all but depend on how long you are going to be a young leader. The next modules are detailed below. Once you complete module A you get a badge and if you complete all of the modules and the 4 missions you are awarded the young leaders belt.

Module F – Making Scouting accessible – Friday 27th January 7.00-9.30pm

Module D – Understanding behaviour – Tuesday 7th February 7.30-9.30pm

Module C – That’s the way to do it! - Thursday 16th February 7.00-9.00pm

Module A – Getting Started – Monday 6th March 7.30-9.30pm

(All Modules will be held at PADSAC)

Module K – First Aid – Talk to Group Scout Leader about the next Course

4 MISSIONS

Mission 1 - run a variety of games

Mission 2 - plan and run an activity

Mission 3 - take part in planning the section’s programme

Mission 4- be responsible for running part of programme

Getting involved

If you’re not already a young leader there are lots of different sections and groups to get involved with. You can email the above address or talk to a leader in a group you are interested in volunteering with. You can volunteer for as much time as you like from three

What happens when I am 18?

When you are 18 you can still be a volunteer. You just need to become an adult volunteer. We ask all our adult volunteers to complete a DBS (Disclosure and Barring Service) and do some different training but what you’ve done as a young leader will count towards this. If you want to know more email info@penarthanddistrict.org.uk. We also have Scout Network to have some fun and work on awards network@penarthanddistrict.org.uk

YOUNG LEADERS SOCIAL

As a thank you to all our young leaders 14 to 25 we are running FREE social events during the year for young leaders to have some fun together. The events for 2016/17 academic year are:-
